

“The Greatest is The Little Child, and if you would be ‘great’ at all you all must BECOME AS THIS CHILD in INNO- CENCE (Inner-Sense), in TRUTH, in PU- RITY in LIFE. Great men scorn not the “little” things of earth. He who regards and honours such a Child, regards and honours I, and he who scorns a Child, scorns I.

*If you would enter through the Kingdom Gate, You all MUST BE HUMBLE AS THIS LITTLE CHILD!

Hear I,

you men, This Child, as every other Child, has One to plead its cause before The Throne of The Good. You scorn It at your peril, me, for LOOK and SIGHT, I say, Its counterpart looks and sees The Face of The Good at every moment, every day.

And Hear I once again,

He who will cause a Little One to stumble and to fall is marked, accursed and It were better by far if he had drowned himself.
LOOK and SIGHT, offences everywhere!
Men find occasions for to sin (miss) and fall, and THEY GROW STRONG BY RISING WHEN THEY FALL, however, WOYO (woe) to him who causes other men to stumble and fall.

BE ON THE I GUARD,

you men of The Good, lest you constrain another man to fall. BE-AWARE lest you fall into sinful ways yourselves. Now, if your hand cause you to sin (miss), YOU BETTER CUT THEM OFF; for It is far better to have no hands and not be guilty in the sight of The Good and Man, than to be perfect in your form and lose your soul (feeling and mind).

And if your feet cause offense, YOU BETTER CUT THEM OFF; for it is better by far to enter into LIFE without your feet than fall beneath the curse. And if your eyes, or ears, cause you to sin (miss), YOU BETTER LOSE THEM ALL than lose your soul (emotion and thought). YOUR THOUGHTS and WORDS and DEEDS will all be tried by fire!

REMEMBER THAT you are the Salt of The Earth.

However if you lose the virtues of salt, you are only refuse in The Sight of The Good.
RETAIN the Virtues of The Salt of LIFE and BE at PEACE among yourselves. The World is full of Men who don't have in themselves The Salt of LIFE, and They are Lost. I Am come to seek and SAVE THE LOST!

What do you think? (What will you do?)

In All Ways REMEMBER the poor and needy!
IYESUS says, 'GO and DO the SAME yourself.'

The Lost Coin

Or again,

Is there any Female (Sêtiyo) with 10 Silver Coins, Who if She loses one,
 Wouldn't She light a lamp?
 And sweep the house?
 And search carefully?
'til She finds it?
 NOW... When She finds it,
 She invites Her friends
 And Her neighbors over
 And She says,
 "JOY with I,
'cause I have found That Silver Coin
...which I had lost."

Have you found what you've lost?

I Am telling you all,
 It's just like this among The GOOD's Messengers/Messages:
 They I-joyce when One Sinner (or, One Who Misses The Mark) has a change of heart (consciousness).
Have you had a change of heart?
Or, Are you still Hard-Hearted and therefore have YOU departed from The Way?

Or again I and I say,

Is there any Soul (feeling and mental body) with 10 Senses, Who if She, the Soul loses one, She lights a lamp (true light) and sweeps the house (body) and search carefully (with the Inner Eye) 'til That Soul finds what She has lost? When That Soul finds It, She invites Her friends and neighbors (the attributes of mind and body) over and says,

"JOY with I,
 because I have found the Silver Coin I had lost."

Have you found what you've lost?

I Am

telling you all, It's just like this among The GOOD's Messengers: They rejoice when One Sinner (One Who Misses The Mark) has a change of heart (consciousness).

IESUS and Pet'ros pay the half-shekel tax as the disciples contend for The Supremacy. Iesus rebukes (oe, corrects) them and teaches them many practical lessons. Now it happened as Iesus and The 12 were resting in the house that the tax collector (creditors) came to Pet'ros saying, "Man, do Iesus and the I-self pay this half-shekel tax?" And Pet'ros says, "I and I (we) pay whatever is assessed." And Iesus says, "From whom do Publicans (poli-tricians) collect this special tax? From Strangers or from Native Sons?" And Pet'ros says, "The Strangers only are supposed to pay this tax!" Then Iesus says, "I and I (we) all are Native Sons and I and I (we) are FREE! However, on the other hand, lest I and I (we) cause contention I and I (we) will pay the tax!" However, on the other hand, neither Iesus or Pet'ros had the shekel to pay.

And Iesus says,

"Go to the Sea! Cast in a hook and catch a fish and you will find within its inner parts a shekel. Take it up and pay the tax for I and I (us)."

And Pet'ros did as Iesus says and he found the shekel and he paid the tax. Now Iesus heard The 12 dispute among themselves. The Spirit of the Carnal Self was moving in their hearts (consciousness), and they were questioning among themselves "Who's the Greatest" in the sight of The Good and Man. And Iesus says,
 "You Men, for shame!

The Greatest is the Servant of The Rest.
And then He called to H.I.M. a little child.
He took the Little Child in His arms
 and says,
